

VALCAP® Customized Solutions

Description

Special solutions for customer specific problems as well as additional monitoring services.

Application range

Submarine cables, land cables, overhead lines

Tailor made monitoring services for specific challenges

With our vast experience in power cable monitoring, we also provide specific monitoring services in case of special requirements.

Our experts will evaluate your needs together with you in order to find the best solution to your individual challenge. In doing so, we always focus on quick and efficient solutions while always keeping long term customer value in mind.

Key functionalities

Customer benefits

Individual assessment of individual monitoring needs	Efficient solution to highly specific problems
Customer specific programming/adaptation of software systems	In-depth consultation and support during the entire project phase and beyond
Complete set-up and installation of services	Increased safety for complex cable systems and set-up
Constant support and availability throughout the project lifetime	Cost effective solutions focusing on long-term value